

Creating Memorable Experiences

What would be a great trip to take in Spring 2018?

I would suggest a music tour to Austria or visit an opera festival in Northern Italy or how about gliding down a river like the Rhine looking at castles and cathedrals.

We have checked out these areas and find them CALM & SAFE.

So music in Austria -we are awaiting the 2018 music festival calendar and will pick some new locations. Austria is famous for having music festivals in towns and villages, in castles, palaces and on mountains – and even on lakes (Bregenz). And there will be Mozart for sure – it is simply a must! “a phenomenon like Mozart cannot be explained (Goethe).

The annual opera festivals of the Three Great: Rossini in Pesaro in the coastal region of Marche, Puccini in Torre Del Lago – close to the lovely town of Lucca; and of course Verdi the maestro in Parma, Emilia Romana region, make a great focus for additional sight seeing of the various regions of Italy.

A River Cruise thru Regensberg

Cruising down the Rhine from Amsterdam to Basel is wonderful experience - I have done it. Man lässt die Seele baumeln (probably the best translation I can come up with: let your soul float) And the great thing about our river cruises is the amazing cuisine, the wonderful wines and very important the ships themselves - well designed and not too large. You get to know your "co-cruisers" and enjoy new friendships. And who would not want to see the Lorelei Rock in reality. Legends say that a maiden named the Lorelei lives on the rock and lures fishermen to their death with her song. The Lorelei is a 132 m high, steep slate rock on the right bank of the river Rhine in the Rhine Gorge at Sankt Goarshausen in Germany.

More travel suggestions next time. . .
